

Speech and Language Therapist

Join Forces with Change Communication

Imagine a world where communication is not a barrier, but a bridge for those navigating the complex terrain of homelessness and health needs. Now imagine you, as a Speech and Language Therapist, finding fulfillment in helping us turn this vision into a reality.

At Change Communication, we address this complexity head-on with professional expertise and care. We have been meeting communication challenges in homelessness settings for over 5 years and invite you to join our team.

As our Speech and Language Therapist you will,

- Further develop our ground-breaking Community Buddies Service.
- Innovate within a role that doesn't merely adhere to norms, but shapes new paradigms of practice and policy.
- Collaborate across health, housing, social care and academia, enhancing our reach and depth of impact.
- Engage directly with people experiencing homelessness, providing reassurance, support, and therapy to optimize their communication experiences and achieve their goals.
- Recruit and manage students and volunteers who support our services.

What We Offer

- Growth Path: A generous annual training allowance to enhance your expertise in communication and develop your understanding of the health challenges of homelessness.
- Collaborative Learning: Opportunities and encouragement to attend conferences, events, and seminars to increase your clinical support network and knowledge base.
- Health First: Enjoy access to Vitality Healthcare, ensuring your well-being is prioritized.
- Balanced Work Life: Enjoy the benefits of a calm resourced office space with the flexibility of occasional work from home days.

In a Nutshell

- Location: Predominantly in Central London, with on-site meetings with services and clients across the capital.
- Flexibility: Available in Full-time or Part-time options, and we're open to discussing secondments.
- Salary: Positioned at NHS Band 5 including HCAS, currently £35,964 pa (pro rata).

Join Our Team

This isn't merely a job, this is an opportunity to be part of meaningful, systemic change for our communities.
